RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Now comes the Respondent, The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, by its attorney, Mark L. Goldstein, and moves the Administrative Law Judge to continue the hearing set for January 18, 2006, and in support thereof, states:

1. Due to the holiday season, the Respondent has been unable to properly view and test the gas meter and generally view the premises at Complainant's place of business at 12519 S. Burley, Chicago, Illinois.
2. After viewing Complainant's premises and testing the gas meter, the Respondent will be in a position to either posit discovery, attempt to settle the matter and/or prepare for trial.
3. In order to accomplish the foregoing, the Respondent requests that the hearing in the captioned matter be continued for more than 30 days from the date it has been set, January 18, 2006.

WHEREFORE, the Respondent respectfully requests the Administrative Law Judge to continue the captioned matter for status to a date in early March 2006.

Respectfully submitted,
The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company
